EVANGELISTIC SERVICES

Interest on Increase-Large Congregations Attend Different Churches Nightly

The union evangelical services being held nightly at the different Protestant churches throughout the city continue to attract large congregations, and the interest in these meetings is on the increase if the attendance is any criterion.

At many of the churches visiting ciergymen are assisting the pastors in these services and special sermons are being delivered each night.

The opening public service for the workshops of the city was held early this afternoon at the plant of the Virginia Shipbuilding Corporation, Rev. Irr. E. V. Regester, pastor of the M. E. Church South, delivering an address to the employes at the plant.

It is expected that the services will vorkshops will be announced.

RICHMOND THEATRE

"Mrs. Leffingwell's Boots," a Select Picture in which Constance Talmadge is presented by Lewis J, Selznick, comes to the Richmond Theatre tonight. It is one of the funniest stories ever wirtten for the screen, concerning the trials and tribulations of a young wife who purchases what she believes to be the only existing pattern of a pair of slippers. However, there is one other pair in ex-- istence and when Mrs. Leffingwell's husband sees them in another man's Leffingwells once more lead a happy shipful Master.

Board of Police Commissioners Elect Chief. Two Sergeants And Fourteen Privates-Six New Members Elected-Annual Inspection Tuesday.

The police force of the city was reorganized last night by the board of police commissioners with the election of a chief, two sergeants and fourteen privates. The election of one private was deferred until the next meeting. This was done by the board in accordance with an ondinance recently passed by the City Council.

Charles T. Good was re-elected chief and William J. Wilkinson and Wilmer H. Scott were re-elected first and second sergeants res pectively. John T. Roberts, who was the third sergeant, was chosen private.

The board first elected all of the privates who were already on the force, numbering eight, after selecting the chief and two sergeants. They are as follows: Thomas Snellings, Samuel R. Reid, James N W. Bell, John W. Kerns, J. Chris-

Twenty-Seven German Submarines Turned Over to Admirals of Allied Navies-Hun Officers Weep-British Officer Refuses to Extend His Hand to Enemy.

Harwich, Nov. 21 .- Somewhere out in the misty expanse of the North Sea last night five big American battleships took up their positions in a fifty-mile line of greyhounds which early today witnessed he surrender of a powerful Garman surface flect, under the eyes of King George, Admirals Beatty, Sims and Rodman, and a corps of more than 100 journalists and artists of all naions that immortalized with pen and brush the greatest naval display in all history.

Germany's sea surrender began at lawn yesterday, when twenty-sever U-boats gave up to Admiral Regihald W. Tyrwhitt's fleet of cruisers and destroyers thirty miles off this port and steamed into Harwich, lcd by British cruisers. Last night the indersea serpents, deprived of their iting, were anencred here under the Union Jack. Only meager crews ust sufficient to navigate them. ook them out on their last journey under the German ensign, which vas hauled down at the rendezvous. The German sailors were a sullen lejected lot.

They were eager to have the whole numiliating business over with. Few aised their eyes until they had at ast boarded the German transport lierraventans, which is to take hem back to Germany.

Two of the Gorman officers wept Another raised his hand to shake vith a British officer. The later re used. The German's hand fell limpy to his side. He turned away grimly muttering something in his native tongue.

As soon as the fleet of U-boats and arrived at the meeting placeerst four divisions of five vessels ach, then another of seven-Adniral Tyrwhitt and a party of offiers from his flagship, the Curacao oarded the submarines one by one nd searched them diligently for 'booby traps."

RECITAL LAST NIGHT

emy Raise $110.25 for United War Work Campaign.

The recital by Edward Brigham framatic reader of New York, given ast evening at St. Mary's Academy proved a delightful affair. Each nem in his groups carried a mesage happy and appropriate, soundng the, key notes of pathes, prayer and patriotism, and yet the whole rogram was pleasingly interspersed with selections of refined honor, For lose to two hours Professor Brigham seld his audience sellbound. The affair netted $110.25, which vill be turned over to the Alexandria City War Work Fund by the "Vicory Girl," among St. Mary's resilent pupils. About fifty other pupils f St. Mary's Academy and St. Mary's Parochial school have pledged hemselves to earn and turn in $5.00 piece for the War Work Fund.

These pledges are to be redeemed n or before December 10, 1918.

SONG HIT NOW ON MARKET

The Camp Humphreys son, "You'l like It," has at last made its appearance on the music counters of Alexandria. The soldier-author. Will F. Dillon, who is now a member of the "famous 606th." which was detrained at Camp Humphreys when enroute for France, was in town tolay. When the song-writer was isked where his outfit was located he replied, "Somewhere in the United States." Dillon says the top sergeant of Comany B and Capt. Roy Emerson, in command, are still noping to take part in the doings across the pond in view of the fact that their regiment is composed of the pick of the engineers now or this side. Private Dillon gives Sergt. Cliff Lyons, of the Fifth E. T. R. credit for the popularity his song has attained.

The printing was done by the press of Harry W. Wade, this city.
